

Study Abroad, Estonia

Summer 2019

Estonian Parliament

Big Red at the Russian Border

Given its strategic location and role in worldwide cybersecurity (it houses NATO's Cyber Defence Centre of Excellence), Estonia may be among the most exciting countries in Europe. Citadel students can enjoy a once-in-a-lifetime experience during Summer, 2019 in this exciting study abroad adventure!

Why study abroad in Estonia?

- Earn 6 hours of Citadel credit in three weeks!!!
- Two exciting courses taught by Estonian professors:

Russia and the Baltic States (3 semester hours). Counts for:	Cyber Security and the Baltic Region (3 semester hours). Counts for:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • PSCI 336, Russia and the Commonwealth of Independent States • PSCI 433, Special Topics in International Politics • INTL 465, Special Topics in Intelligence • PSCI 510 Special Topics in International Politics or • INTL 585, Topics in Intelligence 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CSCI 227, Principles and Practices of Cybersecurity • PSCI 433, Special Topics in International Politics • INTL 465, Special Topics in Intelligence • PSCI 510 Special Topics in International Politics or • INTL 585, Topics in Intelligence

- Multiple excursions to exciting locations, to include Helsinki, Finland; Narva, Estonia; US Embassy.

Program details

- When: July 7 (travel day) – July 29, 2019 (travel day) (Summer II)
- Cost: $3425 (plus airfare) (based on 15 students)
- Price includes tuition and fees, lodging, two meals per day (lunch and dinner), insurance, and all excursions
- Program Leader: Dr. Terry Mays
- Trip Index: 130130

Contact: Dr. Carl Jensen at cjensen1@citadel.edu or Dr. Terry Mays at mayst@citadel.edu.
Study Abroad Website: <http://www.citadel.edu/root/studyabroad>