

The Citadel in DC

Overview

The Citadel in DC is a 10-week program in Washington DC June 1st - Aug 10th. The experience involves living, learning and interning using Washington, DC as an active classroom. Students can earn up to 9 academic credits - 3 academic / 6 internship.

Internship (6 academic Credits)

The internship is an opportunity to gain real-world experience, engage professionally, and to open future opportunities in a competitive market through networking and professional development. While the Citadel Career Center supports all applicants with leads and connections, students are responsible for being very active in the internship application process including: developing resumes and other application documents, applying to and following up with employers, and engaging in the competitive interview processes.

2018 Internship Sites include:

- US Senate
- Office of Police Complaints
- Department of Homeland Security
- American Psychological Association
- Travel Security Administration
- Institute of World Politics
- Business Executives for National Security (BENS)
- National Waste and Recycling Assoc.
- Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)
- National Archives

Academic Coursework (3 academic credits)

The 3hr interdisciplinary course focuses on assessing, analyzing and acting upon visual information. Taught online and at various DC locations (on 5 Saturdays), students sharpen visual perception, intelligence gathering and communication skills. Assignments include weekly reflections, online assessments, a midterm, and a final project.

Alumni Support

The Citadel Club of Greater Washington hosts structured and other impromptu events for students including: a Welcome Dinner, The Marine Corps Parade, a Washington Nationals game, The Alumni Breakfast, and other events.

Majors, Enrollment & Academic Eligibility

All academic majors are eligible to apply, and students must meet the following guidelines:

- Minimum 2.5 GPA
- Good financial standing
- Clearance from The Commandant's Department to ensure no disciplinary infractions which may impact enrollment
- Enrollment fee of $25 to complete the application process

Scholarships

Scholarships are available from $1,000 - $5,000. All students are encouraged to submit a scholarship application. Awards will be made after Spring Break and will be awarded based on factors including:

- Strength of Application
- Suitability for the program
- Academic Standing
- Financial Need

Housing

Students are housed at Catholic University in the DC Metropolitan area. Part of the experience involves learning to be a college student outside of Lesesne Gates. Students experience living in a regular dorm environment with other Citadel students and students from other colleges. Students will have access to public transit, cafeteria options, and other amenities.

Cost and Applications
